

BEAULIEU HISTORY SOCIETY

VISIT TO TITCHFIELD

courtesy of Titchfield History Society

Titchfield became associated with Beaulieu when, after the dissolution of the abbeys in the 16th century, both abbeys came into the ownership of Thomas Wriothesley, 1st Earl of Southampton, courtier to King Henry VIII. The association has continued into recent times

The day visit to this ancient village by coach - 45 minutes journey - will comprise:

Guided tour of the ruins of Titchfield Abbey (founded 1232) and Place House with its imposing Gatehouse

Talk at the Great Barn (early 15th century) with buffet lunch

Guided tour of St Peter's Church (first constructed in 680) including its grand monument to Thomas Wriothesley and his descendants
